Our Lady of Fatima Sixth Apparition Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

“we ask her to give us a simple, deep faith and a devotion that does not fall into empty sentimentalism or passive affections, but, well rooted in our hearts, leads us to rediscover every day the Good News of the Gospel and encourages us to announce it with courage and authenticity.” Fernando Millán Romeral O.Carm. Prior Gen.

We commit to live our lives filled with a spirit of prayer, community and service. May we imitate Him after the example of Our Lady so that we might truly be for others the Light of Christ!

The members of the Third Order of Carmel take their inspiration from the figures of Our Lady and the Prophet Elijah. They try to live in the spirit of the Beatitudes, humbly and consistently exercising the virtues of honesty, justice, sincerity, courtesy and fortitude. One of the most important manifestations of this lay participation in the life of Carmel is the wearing of the Scapular of Carmel and honoring Our Lady, especially under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The picture of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is venerated in every Carmelite monastery and convent and in a large number of churches.

Lay Carmelite Statutes Part I—Nature & Spirituality

“Carmelites are also called to enter profoundly into contemplative prayer, prayer rooted in the Word of God.”

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio—Reading/Listening

Meditatio—Meditation

Oratio—Prayer

Contemplatio—Contemplation

In contemplation we cease from interior spiritual doing and learn simply to be. At intervals the Lord invites us to cease from speaking so that we can simply rest in his embrace. This is the pole of our inner spiritual rhythm called contemplation.
